Introduction

Welcome to the 30-Day 3-to-1 Planner! This tool follows the principles of GPS: Goals, Plan, Success, helping you define your objectives, plan your actions, and reflect on your progress. Each day and week is carefully structured to guide your journey.

Cut-Thru

- Find a quiet and comfortable place where you won't be disturbed.
- Take a few moments to relax your body and mind. You can do this by closing your eyes and taking a few deep, calming breaths.
- visualize the negative experience or emotion you want to address. Imagine it as a film or video playing in your mind.
- As the negative experience plays like a movie, cut or remove the negative imagery from the film. you could be a pair of scissors, a delete button, or any other symbol of removal.
- Mentally and visually, cut or remove the negative images from the film. Imagine them being physically taken out of the movie and disappearing.
- After removing the negative images, replace them with positive or neutral imagery. This could be scenes of happiness, calm, or whatever makes you feel better.
- As you complete the exercise, notice how you feel. You should experience a sense of relief and a shift in your emotional state.
- take a few more deep breaths and allow yourself to return to the present moment with a sense of calm.

Letting go doesn't mean that you don't care.
It's just realizing that the only person you really have control over is yourself

The Best Possible Self

- Close your eyes and imagine your life in the future, where everything has gone as well as it possibly could.
- Vividly describe yourself.

What does your best possible self look like?

Show them, don't tell them.
Your actions must always be more poetic than your words.

It's not what you look at that matters,
it's what you see

Are you enjoying the blessings in your life?

Are you focused on the big picture, the broader canvas that can be explored and filled with magnificent possibilities for change and growth?

Or are you focused on the little distractions and the tiny dark spots?

Who's in your club?

In 1764, a small group of artists, writers, and philosophers formed "The Club." They met once every other week at various places around London.

Samuel Johnson was there. James Boswell was there. Edmund Burke, Edward Gibbon, and Adam Smith were there too.

For years, the group met. They argued with each other. They teased each other. They critiqued each others' work. They competed with each other. They supported each other. They opened doors for each other.

"He that wrestled with us strengthens our nerves and sharpens our skill," Echoing Marcus Aurelius. "Our antagonist is our helper."

The question for you is:
Who is in your club?
Where do you go to learn,
to exchange ideas,
to inspire and be inspired?

You Received an A

Why an A now before completion?

1- positive expectation: You are capable of achieving the highest level of performance

2- Empowerment: Boosting confidence and motivation.

3- Shift in mindset: Promoting intrinsic motivation, where you are driven by their own desire to excel and understand.

4- Reduced Fear of Failure: You can be less afraid of making mistakes or taking risks on your journey while exploring greater creativity.

5- Long-term Impact: You can approach new challenges with confidence and a growth mindset.

You can achieve all
You are the impetus
And the only obstacle in the way
